Will you please shed a little light on the following case

Mrs C, who lives in this school district has fit000 deposited in Ladd & Bush as bank at Salem and for which she holds a carlificate of deposit. When called upon by the assessor, a cither county or school she refused to his cit in, claiming that ladd & Bush had told her that she did not have to pat any taxes on that money in this (Tills mook) county. She also shows a letter from Ladd & Bush to that offset. Is that money taxable in this county or not? If so, what can the conduct of the above named haskers be called? Your answer is awaited with interest by many as School Director.

Money in Mation county, though its owner. Money in Marion county, though its owner lyes in Tillamook county, is no more taxable in Fillamook county than land in Tillamook county, when he owner lives in Karlon county, is taxable
